Sandra L. Morrow

January 13, 1964 – December 29, 2018

Sandra Lynn "Sandy" Morrow, 54, of South Bend died Saturday, December 29th following a lengthy illness. Sandy was born January 13, 1964 in South Bend to Kenneth Morrow Jr. and Mildred S. Scott. She was a lifetime area resident. She is survived by two daughters, Autumn Young of Vancouver, WA and Courtney Thompson (Michael Amor) of South Bend; two grandchildren, Quinn and Sawyer Amor; her sister, Jackie White (Michael) of South Bend; and two brothers, Daniel Morrow (Connie) and Scott Morrow (Deana) both of South Bend. She was a proud Aunt with many nieces and nephews. Sandy was preceded in death by her brother, Mark Morrow, and a sister, Kathy; as well as many cousins.

Service Summary

Private Services

Location: - Not available -

Sandy attended Mishawaka High School and was a proud Caveman. She was the life of the party and never met a stranger. She loved alternative rock, animals, Notre Dame football, The Chicago Bears, and a great cup of Peet's Coffee. Sandy's humor, quick wit and strength will be deeply missed by all who knew her. A private memorial service for family and a public celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

Welsheimer Family Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Ovarian Cancer Alliance, 14 Pennsylvania Plaza Suite 2110, New York, NY, 10122 or www.ocrahope.org. Family and friends may leave email condolences at www.welsheimer.com.
