Jack was multi-talented and enjoyed expressing his creativity in music, art, and humor. He attended Indiana University and received an Associate's Degree in Music. Jack was well known and loved by the Bloomington community. Jack enjoyed an eclectic life which is why he enjoyed living in Seattle and Bloomington. He often returned to his old stomping grounds to try to re-capture some of those moments. The friends that he met during his adventures were always close to his heart, no matter where he called home. Despite a life-time of health challenges, Jack was always willing to fight the battle. No matter what obstacle was thrown in front of him, he always looked forward to a hopeful and happy future. He was a warm-hearted, loving, caring man, with a heart of gold. Jack was a kind soul and will be dearly missed by friends and family alike. He will especially be missed by his brother Steven, with whom he shared a home and a life long struggle with hemophilia. Steven was integral part of supporting Jack during his many health challenges.
